

- 01 Authorization is required to insure that your email address is accurate and active.
- 02 An authorization email will automatically send when you register for Reefware and when you update your account email address.
- 03 To authorize your email address, you will need to follow the link in this email.
- 04 The link will redirect you to www.reefware.com where it will authorize your account and you will be able to use all the Reefware features.